

Please Don't Feed Nēnē

It's a crime: Nēnē are protected by both Federal and State laws. It is illegal to interfere with their natural behavior, which includes giving them food and water.

Fed birds lose their natural foraging instincts and are less likely to survive in the wild.

Feeding attracts the Nēnē to parking areas and roadsides where they are run over.

A message from The State Department of Land and Natural Resource, Division of Forestry and Wildlife

